

YARRA VALLEY
WINE
SHOW
2019

WINE YARRA VALLEY

Media Release – For immediate release

Tuesday 17 September, 2019

2019 Langton's Yarra Valley Wine Show Results

On Thursday 12th September, the 2019 Langton's Yarra Valley Wine Show Trophy Presentation Dinner was held at the Yarra Valley Racing Centre. Over 180 guests attended the evening to hear the trophy winners being announced by MC Bridget McIntyre and celebrate the Yarra Valley wine industry.

Squitchy Lane had an outstanding show, receiving four trophies including Champion Wine of Show for their Squitchy Lane Cabernet Sauvignon 2018. This wine also won Best Cabernet Sauvignon, Best Single Vineyard Red Wine and Best Red Wine in Show.

Giant Steps Wine were awarded Most Successful Exhibitor for the second year in a row. Receiving trophies for Best Cabernet Varieties & Their Blends and Best Shiraz, for their Harry's Monster 2018, and their Tarraford Vineyard Syrah 2018, respectively. This was on top of their four gold medal wines.

The trophies for Best Chardonnay, Best Single Vineyard White Wine and Best White Wine in Show were all awarded to Oakridge Wines for their 864 Funder and Diamond Chardonnay 2017.

Tim Shand accepted the Best Pinot Noir trophy for the Punt Road Wines Monopole Napoleone Vineyard Pinot Noir 2018. This wine was made in collaboration with City Wine Shop, allowing for their dedicated staff to further their knowledge in viticulture and winemaking.

The trophy for Best Sparkling was awarded to Coldstream Hills, for their Sparkling Pinot Noir Chardonnay 2015. Coldstream Hills were also recognised for the Langton's Wines of Provenance award with the 2017, 2011 and 2005 Reserve Chardonnay.

Sarah Crowe winemaker of Yarra Yering, accepted the award for Best Other Single Red Varieties & Blends for the Yarra Yering Dry Red No.3 2018.

The De Bortoli Wines Section A5 Chardonnay 2012 was announced as the Best Museum Wine, while Stefani Estate took out the Best Other Single White Varietal with their Vigna Stefani Arneis 2018.

Chief Judge, Chris Crawford remarked how impressed he was at the calibre of wines entered across all classes, especially Cabernet Sauvignon.

"A terrific variety of styles from the region which displayed balance and intensity," Chris Crawford said.

Gold medal winning wines were enjoyed over the exceptional four-course meal prepared by Locavore and some of the region's finest chefs.

For more information on the 2019 Langton's Yarra Valley Wine Show and a list of full results, head to: wineyarravalley.com.au

-ENDS-

+ Winemakers available for interview on request

+ Images available on request

Media Enquiries:

Lauren McKay

E: marketing@wineyarravalley.com.au

P: 0432 747 625

Caroline Evans

E: cevens@wineyarravalley.com.au

P: 0409 190 646